

EPOCH

A CREATIVE MAGAZINE FOR TEENS BY TEENS

HOW TO SUBMIT ARTWORK TO EPOCH MAGAZINE

- Artwork should be attached to your email and sent to: epoch@skidompha.org.
- Acceptable file formats are: .jpg, .jpeg, or .pdf
- Please include an artist statement with your work—a few lines with your submission about what inspired the piece and what you hope to convey.
- Please ensure that your files are high resolution (at least 300 pixels per inch).
- Attach a completed permission slip to the same email.
- Use “EPOCH Submission – YOUR NAME” in your email subject line.
- Include your name, school, grade, and a title for your submission.
- You can submit up to 5 pieces of artwork for EPOCH Editors to consider per volume.
- You may submit multiple files (up to 5 pieces per volume) through a .zip file. Please title the individual files with your name and the title of the piece.

Submissions that do not meet our criteria or do not follow these submission steps will not be considered.

Other General Guidelines / Notes:

EPOCH Magazine is a collaborative creative magazine between Skidompha Library and Maine teens in grades 7 to 12. All pieces are considered by an Editorial Board of volunteer students and mentors, and are reviewed and selected anonymously.

Please note that we do accept pieces that have been published elsewhere (if the other publication also allows this), but please let us know where and when something was published previously so that we can add a note in our magazine.
